2016 HALL of FAME

Specialty Food Association has created a Hall of Fame for the specialty food industry. The Hall's Mission is to "honor individuals whose accomplishments, impact, contributions, innovations, and successes within the specialty food industry deserve praise and recognition."

ALFRED CICCOTELLI JR.
CENTO FINE FOODS, INC.

Alfred Ciccotelli, Jr. had tremendous drive and vision as he was first to market by making Italian food part of the specialty food category in mainstream supermarkets. He built Cento into an iconic brand through his leadership, tenacity, and keen market insight. His personal philosophy was captured in "Trust Your Family With Our Family".

ALFRED CICCOTELLI SR. (MR.C)
CENTO FINE FOODS, INC.

Alfred Ciccotelli, Sr. possessed an unbridled passion for Italian specialty foods. Affectionately known as "Mr. C", he pioneered Italian specialty food into the Delaware Valley market and lived by his motto, "Just treat people right". Starting from a rental garage stall, he went on to build what is known today as Cento Fine Foods.

Ferrara Pandoro

Pandoro (whose name means golden bread) traces its origins to Verona, a city forever romantically linked to Romeo and Juliet. Pandoro began around the 18th century, when breads made with eggs, butter and sugar were quite rare, strictly reserved for nobility. With its special star-shaped mold, and tall stature, the sugar sprinkling on top was done to resemble the Italian Alps at Christmas time.
